Dean Knudson Makes It Official

Knudson To Run For 30th State Assembly Seat

Hudson Mayor and veterinarian Dean Knudson announced today he is running for the 30th Wisconsin State Assembly seat being vacated by Kitty Rhoades (R).

In separate events in River Falls and Hudson, Knudson spoke before groups of community members, supporters, and members of the press.

“We face enormous challenges in our state today and it is time to move Wisconsin in a new direction.” said Knudson. “That is why I am announcing my candidacy for the State Assembly.”

Knudson has spent the last few weeks traveling throughout the district while considering a run for the state legislature. “As I have listened and talked with people throughout the district, it is clear that people are very concerned with the direction government has taken and the impact it has had on their families.” said Knudson.

The economy and jobs, tax relief and improving education are critical issues in the district and will be the focus of Knudson’s campaign.

“My background as a small business owner gives me an understanding of how tax and regulatory burdens affect our employers, their families and our local economy.” said Knudson. “It is time to move Wisconsin in a new direction...lower taxes, more jobs, better schools.”

Dean Knudson will bring extensive business and leadership experience with him to Madison. He is a veterinarian, has been a successful small business owner and currently serves as mayor of the City of Hudson. Dean has been married to Joy for 22 years and they have two children Sonya (21) and Reed (18).

Knudson is running as a Republican candidate.

The 30th Assembly district includes all or part of Hudson, River Falls, Prescott, Ellsworth, and Somerset.
